BC Bids Farewell to Faculty Members

As the new year begins, four BC faculty members have moved on to greener pastures.

Professor of Economics Dr. Chuck Holmes retired in May. A faculty member since 1983, Chuck will enjoy travelling, spending time with his family, and putting his new camera, which he received at his retirement party to good use.

Assistant Professor of Reading Clare Ferner accepted a position at Kellogg Community College in Battle Creek, Michigan. Clare joined the faculty in 1992 and was active in Habitat for Humanity while at BC.

Instructor of Developmental English Dana Owens accepted a position at Renaissance High School in Alabaster, Alabama. A faculty member since 1996, she chaired the Lyceum Committee and was active in Artsfest.

Assistant Professor of Mathematics Stephanie Breedlove accepted a position at Tallahassee Community College. Stephanie joined the faculty in 1994 and co-chaired the Minority Affairs Program.

New Irrigation System Installed

Assistant Superintendent of Plant Operations Larry McConnell digs a trench near the Continuing Education Building. Plant Operations is installing a new sprinkler system here and around the Technical Studies Building to decrease city water usage for irrigation and increase usage of the less expensive campus well water.
