

BC Students Participate in Worldwide Chess Tournament Student Activities to Make It an Annual Event

Enjoying a Student Government Association-sponsored competition at the end of Spring Semester are Bainbridge College students who participated in the worldwide Chess Tournament that started April 6 as an online event and became a campus event as victors emerged. Student Activities Director David Price plans to make it an annual event.
